Introduction:

Security has always been one of the fundamental concerns of humanity. It is indeed a prerequisite and necessary infrastructure for the progress and development of any society in different dimensions. In a bid to smooth the path of its progress, the Islamic Republic of Iran has always endeavored to have the highest security factor among the West Asian countries. To achieve this goal, Iran has followed the strategy of non-interference in the domestic affairs of others and reciprocally not allowing other countries to interfere in those of its' own. Such independence and non-dependence have always come at a high price for countries that define their survival in the exploitation of other countries and consider it their right to interfere in the domestic affairs of others. For this reason, they seek to make Iran insecure and unstable with different modus operandi. In this way, resorting to terrorism is one of the enemies' tactics against the Islamic Republic of Iran. Over the past four decades, more than 17,000 Iranian people have been assassinated.

Following the Islamic Revolution, Iran has paid a heavy price for ensuring its security and keeping foreigners out of the Country. The sacrifice of the lives of over 213,000 people of this land in eight years of imposed war bears witness to the resistance of the great Iranian nation against the arrogant avarice of those who did not stomach Iran's independence and launched a broadside against its' territorial integrity. Since then, Iran's enemies have left no stone unturned to materialize their destabilization strategy. On 17 September 2022 and right after the death of Mahsa Amini, these countries grasped the opportunity to ride the wave of unrest and fan the flames of protests taking place following the death of the foregoing person. In the meantime, the willful or unwanted accompanying of those who went along with the enemy's scenario caused the protests to fade away and morph into riots quickly, dealing a hefty blow to and imposing a high cost on the Country and the people. Having prioritized their national interests, the Iranian people soon parted ways with the rioters and separatists, emerging victorious from such a test once again.

During three months of riots, a significant number of the youth of this land (more than 7,000 people) were injured by the rioters for merely defending and maintaining the security of the State, and some of them were brutally martyred. The martyrdom and injuries of the law enforcement forces come as, according to the issued instructions and the available documents, they did not even carry any firearms to defend themselves against the rioters and armed terrorists. On the other side, the rioters and terrorists took to the streets with firearms and shot security and police forces and even passers-by, martyring many of them. Over 8,314 weapons were discovered and confiscated during the riots, of which 6,314 were firearms.

We witnessed the height of cruelty and brutality in the terrorist attack in the Holy Shrine of Shah Cheragh (PBUH) in city of Shiraz, and during the martyrdom of Arman Aliverdi in Ekbatan Town and Ruhollah Ajamian in Alborz Province.

In Markazi Province, a young police officer, who was only 20 years old, was martyred after being run over by a car in a reckless and deliberate act. In the holy city of Mashhad, the rioters, who were after shutting down shops with threats and force, suddenly attacked ordinary citizens and martyred two innocent students with knives. Moreover, some people who had come to the streets empty-handed to calm down and disperse the obstructionists fell prey to the rioters and were martyred. Some security defenders were beaten, tortured, and martyred in the worst possible way by the rioters.

Chanting “Women, Life, Freedom”, the murderers assaulted women wearing hijab in different cities, pulled their chadors off, disrupted people’s lives and obstructed their freedom of movement by closing streets and highways, took away shopkeepers’ freedom to earn a living by threatening them, and demanded prosperity while causing thousands of billions of Rials of damage to private, public and Government property.

Attended and held by the masses, the magnificent burial ceremonies of the martyrs of the recent riots, and nationwide rallies held by tens of millions of people on the occasion of the 44th anniversary of the victory of the Islamic Revolution, followed by countrywide marches held by the people on Friday 28 October 202 – two days after the bloody terrorist attack in the Holy Shrine of Shah Cheragh (PBHU) – are a testament to the fact that the people of Iran draw a clear demarcation and part ways with anyone who causes instability and inflicts damage upon the territorial integrity and national security of the Country.

The present report puts on display the pictures and touches upon the particularities of security defender martyrs as well as some innocent people who were brutally martyred by the rioters.
